The Sixth Form

It seems to me
I'd like to go Where bells don't ring,
Nor whistles blow,
Nor clocks don't strike,
Nor gongs sound,
And I'd have stillness
all around.

'Tis the business of small minds to shirk, but he whose heart is firm and whose conscience approves will pursue his principles unto death.

—Thomas Paine

You have to pay your dues,
If you want to sing the blues
And you know it don't come easy.

—George Harrison

And in the end, the love you take,
Is equal to the love you make.

Robert Lee Grenko, Jr.

I find the great thing in this world is not so much where you stand, as in what direction we are moving: to reach the port of heaven, we must sail sometimes with the wind, sometimes against it. But we must sail and not drift, nor be at anchor.

—Oliver Wendell Holmes

Life is a daring adventure, or nothing.

Keyvan Kohan-Shohat

A page of history is worth a book of logic.
—Vice Admiral Hymen Rickover

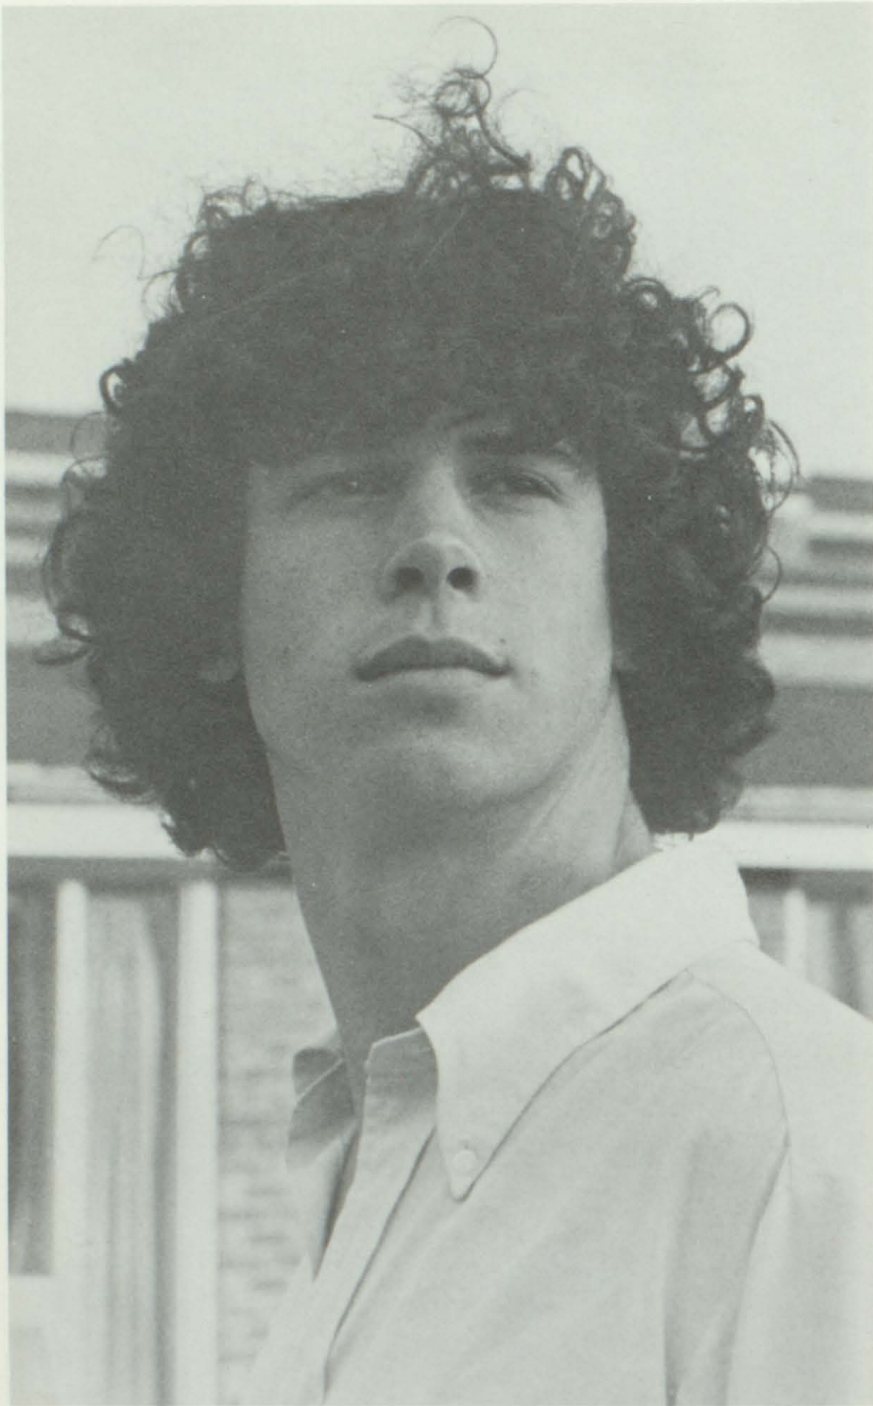

“Difficulties” is the name given to things which it is our business to overcome.
—Admiral Ernest J. King

No man needs sympathy because he has to work, because he has a burden to carry. Far and away the best prize that life offers is the chance to work hard at work worth doing.
