HOOSAC SCHOOL - CLASS OF 2009

In my two years at Hoosac, I learned two valuable life lessons: whatever it is that makes you happy, go for it, and secondly, some friendships are meant to last forever, no matter what happens. Before coming to Hoosac, I had been all over the place for hockey, but couldn't seem to find a good fit for me both athletically and academically. Something felt like it was missing. I realized that something was a caring and comforting community. I can remember all the way back to my very first day at the Sac, which says it all. I had just gotten my room key, and drove down to Lavino, which was soon to be my new home. I felt scared and nervous about what was in store, but before I had even stepped one foot in the door, Alex Pilch (Polo) walked right up to me and introduced himself, and then went with Polo to meet some of the other guys. We were having a cookout that day, and when I got up to the field, I found that almost the entire hockey team was already sitting together at one of the picnic benches. Right away they embraced me, and by that afternoon, every single one of the boys on the hockey team had already developed a strong bond that from that day forward, could never, and will never, be broken. From six-hour on bus rides with the windows down, to hills and Thursday morning workouts at 5:00 AM, I have never grown so close to a group of guys as my teammates at the Sac. I leave Hoosac knowing that the friendships I have made here will last forever, and that I know this school has made me who I am. My teachers and coaches have supported me the whole way through and believed in me, and I owe everything to them.

Mom and Dad: I can't even begin to thank you enough both for how much you have done for me. You have been my support system for my entire life and especially the past two years. Thank you so much for believing in me and letting me pursue hockey in the states. Giving me this opportunity has changed me as a hockey player, student, and as a person, and I believe that it has all been good change. Love you both very much and thank you for everything.

Jason: No doubt, best brother. Thank you so much for always being there for me, no matter the circumstance. Whether you would have to bail me out with some cash money late at night in Budapest or have Atl and I crash at your place for the millionth time, you have always been there willing to help me out. I respect you more than anyone, and value our friendship. Thanks for always having my back and keeping me focused. Love you man.

Dan: Ma ze Ma ze. You are my best friend, and a brother to me. No matter the distance, the friendship always stays the same, and I hope that continues. Much love goes out to you and your family.

Coach Rabinowitz: Who would of thought that one little try out in Waipole, Mass would have sparked my prep hockey career and not to mention, my hockey career on American soil. I will never forget my time here at Hoosac, especially all the blood, sweat, and tears that went into preparing for each and every hockey game. The dictionary is the only place where SUCCESS comes before WORK. That is something you have taught me to live by. Thank you for everything. I wish you all the success in the future.

Coach Streich: The best assistant coach I have ever had. You have taught me so much on and off the ice I can't even put it all into words. You have taught me little things to improve my game, you have let me know what it takes to succeed in hockey and most importantly you have taught me to care about the little things in life, because often times the little things are what matter most. Thank you for two great seasons Coach. You better crack that police force in Vancouver. Best of luck and give em' hell.

Jory Uhlman: You made the transition into prep school so much easier man. Moving into Hoosac two years ago I didn't realize that my roommate would become one of my greatest friends. Whether you believe it or not you have taught me a lot. For example, when to really care and try and when to just shut er' down and relax. I hope you one-day come to Europe and see what I mean by all the stories. "You're the best (bleeping) captain ever Attila Pavuk: "Magyarország, Magyarország, Magyarország eh ah ohh." It was so good to play with you for two more years. Growing up with you has been awesome man. You are the most skilled and smartest player I have ever played alongside. I will miss not playing with you next year, but maybe somewhere down the line we will end up throwing "Schweizy" passes to each other again. Since we moved to the states you have become a brother to me. You are a great friend and an awesome teammate. Keep up the good work. I will see you in Balaton this summer.

Stewie and Eli and Niko: Best neighbors, no doubt. We were all in the same boat two years ago moving into Pitt. We have grown up these past years and we are going onto bigger and better things. You are both good hockey players and are starting to find your way in the classroom. Keep it up and good luck with both your PG years. Niko don't change a thing about your self. FATI Keep in touch.

Lorne Miller: Lord Miller. Dude, you were one of my best friends at Hoosac, you helped me get used to this prep school life. Thanks so much man. You are an amazingly skilled defenseman; use your tools to succeed. Club Opera Direct! Good luck with everything lets keep in touch, and enjoy your birth right trip.

Phil Moore: Crank er', drive er', snipe er'. You have been a great teammate this past year. Thank you for trusting me and coming to Hoosac this year. Regardless of the result this was for sure a season to remember. You are one of the sickest guys to have on the point. Keep sniping man. I hope you do great at USM. Good luck man.

Brett Heigl: Ohh Heigl. Haha. You are a funny kid man, and you never cease to amaze me on and off the ice. It was awesome to play alongside you for most of the year. You are a tough kid man, and keep that up dude. I hope you run train on the EJ next year. Work hard and earn it. Lets keep in touch.

Stephen Bucco: Haha. JR. Hands down you are the most skilled teammate I have ever played with. You simply just J on everyone's life. Keep it going man. This year was awesome, but lets make next year the even better man. Lets keep in touch over the summer and enjoy the rest of the way through Hoosac. Peace.

Nick and Noti: MOSI! And Satura hatura hatura. You are both great kids, and were good teammates. Where ever you both end up. Do great and enjoy life!

Graig Angarella: Dude, it's been a pleasure to play with you man. You're one tough kid, and a hell of a teammate. Keep working hard and you will go far. Take the EJ down and run train. Best of luck in Philly next year. Stay greasy!

Sean Jenkins

Dudley Crew: No matter what, Dudley was always the spot. You guys took that responsibility upon yourselves and I respect that. You are all good kids, and when you put your mind to it you all will go places. Ponzio, be confident and play your game next year, because when you're on it's all over. TJ, keep loving life man. Jared, college was made for you, enjoy every minute of it. Tex, be smart and stay focused on hockey, you have more potential than most kids your age, so take charge. Polo, I hope you succeed in college, work hard and be yourself dude.

Quad and rest of Lavino: Dev, you're the boss. Once an arranger always an arranger. Tear up Montreal next year, whether you're in college or not. Be ready for a visit. Davis, kill it in Worcester State, when you put your mind to it their aint no stopping you. Gary, missed not having you in Pitt, but we still rock out to house. You're a great teammate, and wish you the best of luck at Manhattanville. We have to go tear up MTL again some time soon. Peace. Baby B, stand on your head next year, and guide the team. Best of luck.

The education you received and your love of this school, your teachers, your friends, and Hoosac's traditions have given you a strong foundation for your future. Look ahead to college and beyond. Have big dreams and dare to follow them! We wish you a happy and successful future at UVM.

To the Faculty and Staff at Hoosac School

Thank you all so much for the guidance, education, support, patience, love, and the many, many other things you have provided our three children over the past nine years.

Stephen, Melanie and Micheal were offered experiences at Hoosac that gave each of them confidence, maturity, love of tradition, and excellent preparation for continuing their educations and lives beyond your hallowed halls.

We feel very fortunate to have found Hoosac. We are extremely grateful to you all.

Paul and Mimi Zylinski
